Dedicated

to our friend and counselor on her retirement ...

Thirty years of dedicated service to students in the valley schools, the last seven at Crescenta Valley High, have endeared Miss Katherine Bush to students, faculty, and parents. In fact, both faculty and parents are among her former students. She pulled no punches as counselor and advisor, yet was always ready with a smile, a friendly gesture, or encouraging comment. As an ardent sports fan, we will look forward to seeing Miss Bush in the stands whenever she can attend.

foreword

As we read this for the first time, the memory of 1967-68 is still fresh in our minds. For this reason, this book has not been put together for us now; rather, its contents are being held in trust until a time when our memories begin to fade. The road to the future is unknown, and the landmarks of the past rush by all too rapidly, but within these pages, the highlights of this year at Crescenta Valley High have been captured and made imperishable.

To everything there is a season, and time waits only in words and pictures. Let us be grateful that this year can be so preserved.

The effectiveness of any school program depends, to a great extent, on the attitude and loyalty of the student body. It is most gratifying to observe the excellent spirit of our school and to be aware of the many accomplishments of our students. Crescenta Valley High School is a product of the students, and the student body can justly be proud of their school.

On October 5, 1967, Crescenta Valley High School lost a friend. The death of Mr. Anthony Wilson created a void not only in the personal lives of his friends and loved ones but also in the academic lives of those who will never know him.

Mr. Wilson will be first remembered by Crescenta Valley High School as a teacher. He molded the curriculum of the history and government classes he taught into intellectually rewarding experiences.

Mr. Wilson's contribution to the educational process at Crescenta Valley transcended the boundaries of the classroom. The impact of his imagination and energy was felt in many of the extracurricular activities that supplement the students' total educational development.

Mr. Wilson's importance in the academic effort is not difficult to define, but his importance to the spirit of Crescenta Valley is indefinable. There were certain intangible elements of personality that made Mr. Wilson more than an ordinary teacher at Crescenta Valley. He was a true friend.

class council turns ideas into reality

The Class of '68 will be remembered as one of the finest ever to graduate from Crescenta Valley High School. Starting off in their sophomore year, they showed definite promise, and under the leadership of Bruce Lamb, wrote a new page in the record book when they made a financial "go" of their first year here at Crescenta Valley. Everyone said it couldn't be done, but '68 did it!

Early in the year of '66, Crescenta Valley held its first Competition Day. It was a close race all the way, but '68 took that memorable first Competition Day and gained at that moment an image it was never to lose.

With Scott McCreary as president during their junior year, the class again forged ahead, and after a truly successful Junior Prom, again astounded everyone by capturing Crescenta Valley's second annual Competition Day.

In their senior year, with Mike Miller leading the way, the class lived up to its reputation. Selling magazines in an already saturated market was no easy task, but '68 rolled up its sleeves and did a fairly admirable job under adverse conditions, and without even breaking stride captured its third consecutive Class Competition Day.

It is with great pride and satisfaction that I look back on my association with this class, and it is very easy for me to say: Class of '68, you were truly Great!

senior day

Senior Day, an annual occasion which gives the graduating class an opportunity to celebrate, came to Crescenta Valley on November 22 this year. It was a bermuda day for Seniors only and was highlighted by a girls' pushball game, a barbeque, and a movie, "Heroes of Telemark." Seniors finished their day by dancing to the "soul sound" of The Innocents. Scenes from the push-ball game appear on this page.

STUDENT LIFE

Within a limited sphere of influence, the ASB Cabinet exercises almost complete control of student activities. The success or failure of Howdy Day, Homecoming, after-game dances, Class Competition Day, assemblies and the financial state of the student body is directly attributable to the abilities of the Cabinet. I am happy to report that these things have been more than successful this semester. In addition, the Cabinet can act as a rallying point for student action. During this semester, for example, the Cabinet molded pro open-campus sentiments into positive and meaningful action. Also, dissatisfaction with the school cafeteria was channeled into significant changes. Above all, I am very pleased to learn that general student attitude and spirit has reached a high point during this semester. The Cabinet wishes to extend to the ASB of Crescenta Valley their thanks for the cooperation and support given this semester.

spring cabinet

This past semester I have tried to conduct the Cabinet in such a way that we could present the Talent Show, "The Day," and other ASB-sponsored events successfully. It has been important for us to pull away from the usual conception of student government as operating amidst the unimportant paper work, e.g., approving club-sponsored events, etc., that unfortunately plagues most types of student-governing organizations. However, because of the necessity for limiting the powers of Cabinet at the high school level of student government, there has certainly not been any revolutionary change at CVHS as a result of our actions. Realizing fully this eventual partial-defeat, I have tried to lay the groundwork for more positive and meaningful government. The Cabinet and I have worked for this goal in two directions. First of all, we have expressed and, I hope, impressed upon the student body their responsibility to elect officials who will strive to improve student government. Secondly, I have worked directly with the Cabinet itself in the creation of an All-City Forum with Hoover and Glendale High Schools. I sincerely believe that with constructive inter-Cabinet discussion, new ideas have been, and will be inter-changed. This organization also helps in presenting a unified front to the Glendale school's administration in matters, for instance, such as open campus. In closing, I would like to thank the Associated Student Body of Crescenta Valley High School for giving me the opportunity to serve them in my capacity as Student Body President.

Cong Vo

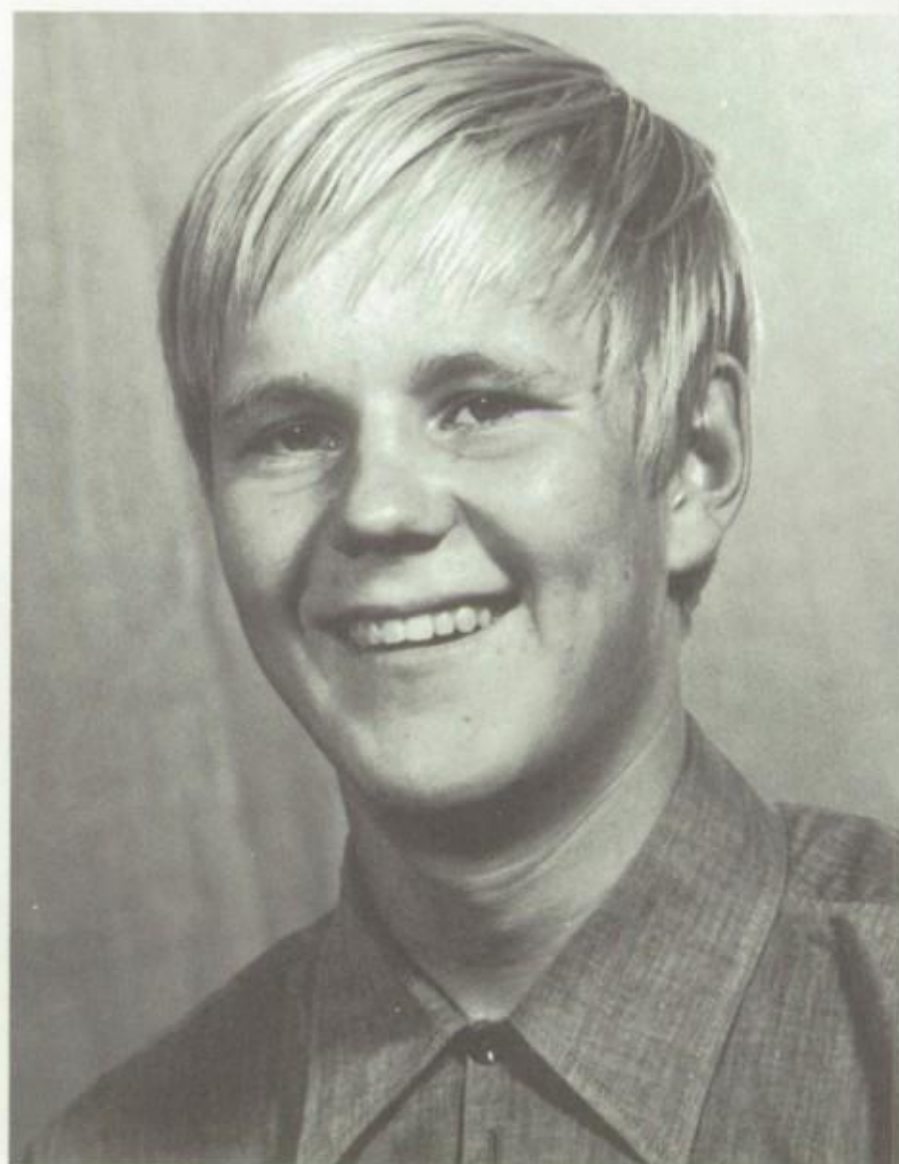

Vo Hoa Cong is one of our foreign exchange students who came to CV from South Viet Nam. At home she has two brothers and three sisters. Cong is living with the Hays family; Jim, a senior, and John, a sophomore, are "brothers" and Joanna and Judy are "sisters." Her courses included chemistry, physical education, French 3-4, typing, Girls' Glee, and American Government. Cong had the following comments about her stay in America.

"Having been here ten months, I have really enjoyed it very much with the nice people I've met. My school, my family, and everything are the greatest things to me. I believe this to be the most fantastic year I've ever had."

"Class competition day, archery in p.e., smoggy days at CV, hilarious basketball games, fire drills at any possible moment and hectic A Cappella rehearsals ... There are so many things that fill my imaginary scrapbook from CV. In twenty years I might have forgotten most of these now vivid memories, but there are some things that will never leave my mind. I'll never forget all the help you students and teachers have given me and all the friendliness that was shown me. I have enjoyed my year at CV immensely, and I want you to know how grateful I am to you for making it such a wonderful year."

Kris Johnson, Exchange Student from Sweden

The purpose of American Field Service is to give CV students an opportunity to exchange ideas with foreign students. The club sponsors a candy bar sale in the spring to enable AFS students to come to the United States. Activities included a traditional Christmas party in which each of the foreign students related Yuletide customs of his native homeland. Also, the club attended the Ramona pageant at Hemet.

The French Club's goal for the year was to present an outstanding senior with a $100.00 scholarship. Throughout the year, club members ate lunch together every Thursday with only French spoken at the table. For an additional activity, the club also went to a French restaurant for dinner. Mrs. Pukish has given her time to sponsor the club.

dramatize life

The results of long and tedious practices are evident in the dance performances of Marie Tillmanns and Jeannine Adams.

Truly it can be stated: The Fine Arts Department of any institution of public instruction above the elementary level is the school's intrinsic link with the world of art today.

It is our purpose in presenting KALEIDOSCOPE II to show "Happenings" of the "Now" generation. In displaying representative works from the music, art, and modern dance departments, it is shown that artistic merits of our school justify the need for recognition.

Director of Fine Arts

the hills

Under the direction of Miss Shirley Nute, more than two hundred Crescenta Valley students won recognition for CV in the Southern California Vocal Association musical festivals held throughout the Southland. The choral department also presented three concerts in MacDonald Auditorium in addition to singing for community organizations. The Girls' Glee Clubs, Men's Glee, and A Cappella Choir joined CV students in the traditional Christmas celebration on December 15. The inspirational music presented by the choirs included "The Holly and the Ivy" by Boughton and the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. Broadway hit tunes featuring a medley of songs from The Music Man were the theme of the A Cappella presentation of the Pops Concert in March. The choral finale of the year was the Spring Concert, in which the combined choirs presented a group of songs from Most Happy Fella. The Inter-Choral Council provided student leadership this year. Led by choir presidents Bruce Stillman, Mary Jo Ellison, Jan Hutcherson, and Scott Forward, the council planned the annual Fall and Spring Sports Nights and other social events for choir members. This year's Choir Mascots are Wolfgang and Wilhelmena, two very friendly mice. Wolfgang was found in the music room piano and Wilhelmena was presented to the classes as a companion for Wolfgang. The members of the Music Department now have the distinction of being aunts and uncles twelve times over!

Members of the Concert Band brought honor to the foothills this spring at the Southern California Band and Orchestra Association Competitions held in Pasadena.

musicians bring acclaim

In addition to directing CV instrumental groups, Mr. Cease is active in the community as a violinist for the Glendale Symphony Orchestra.

CV's recipient of the coveted Arion Award, Bob Kendel, has been an oboe soloist for the Foothill Youth Orchestra and the Long Beach Symphony Orchestra.

Crescenta Valley's Band and Orchestra under the instruction of Mr. Cease distinguished themselves in the Southern California Band and Orchestra Association Competitions this spring. Student leaders Bob Kendel and Jim Clark also helped direct the performing groups throughout the year. Climaxing the season was concert held in MacDonald Auditorium on March 15th. Aaron Copland's An Outdoor Overture and Beethoven's Fifth Symphony were highlights of the evening performance. Arion Award winner Bob Kendel was the featured soloist.

Members of the CV Symphony Orchestra, who are selected from the Marching Band and String Orchestra, distinguished themselves throughout the year as fine musicians.

to crescenta valley

The enthusiastic CV Marching Band, led by Drum Major Jim Clark and Majorette Barbara Voegle, performed during football season.

After weeks of work, the combined efforts of Crescenta Valley's Choral, Drama, Speech, and Stage Arts departments culminated Christmas activities at CV with the presentation of "Everywhere, Everywhere, Christmas Tonight." Traditional Christmas stories, narrated by Karen Barbee, Chris Cottingham, and Dave Miller, provided the background for a series of tableaux depicting Christmas celebrations around the world. Trumpet soloist Bob Schneider joined the combined choirs in the inspirational hymn "Unto Us A Child Is Born." Climaxing the evening was the annual rendition of Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah.

Broadway hit tunes were sung by CV's A Cappella Choir at their annual Pops Concert on March 2nd. The evening's performance included songs from The Music Man, Carousel, and The Sound of Music. Choir president Bruce Stillman presented Miss Nute with red roses at the end of the evening in appreciation for her hours of devotion to CV choral music.

a cappella presents

Marty Merkley and Marie Maniccia teamed up to sing the hit tune "Sixteen Going on Seventeen" from The Sound of Music.

Kadie Hudson sang "What Kind of Fool Am I?" from Stop the World I Want to Get Off.

"Pops Concert"

Back stage Rob Shatsnider, Ann Oglesby, Chris Lerable, Joyce Mertes, Steve Smith, Rich Foresen, and Kirk McKeever relaxed during intermission.

Shirley Jackson's play, "The Lottery", was presented to CV students during the fall semester. Sue Hunt and Dave Steed played the leads.

Learning to apply and remove stage make-up is an important factor in the development of stage skills. Colleen Feldman and Meg Phillips are removing make-up after a successful performance.

Drama Club members presented a series of one act plays to CV students this year and then successfully participated in the Foothill League One Act Play Festival. In addition, the Club's members acted in the spring and fall plays and the Christmas Program.

A collage of talent was presented to CV students on Saturday night, February 17th. Under the direction of Holly Block, CV's annual talent show was a myriad of folk songs, original dance numbers, and musical groups. The evening was fun-filled and entertaining for CV students and Valley residents.

A moment of culture in the annual talent show was presented by the Wormcharmers of Sopahatchie Jug Band.

"Get ready on the house lights—dim the lights—open the curtain—bring up the lights!" and the stage crew launches another CV assembly. Director of Assemblies Holly Block presented an entertaining and informative series of assemblies this year including "The Flintridge Singers", John Goddard, Falcon Fairy Tales, a satiricle review of the fall play, The Crucible, and local pop group, "The Port of Entry".

Talent, hardwork, and enthusiasm in Crescenta Valley's art department have added to the constantly-changing art scene here at CV. A four foot strawberry sundae, pop art posters, huge wood carvings, oil paintings, and a six foot brown bear were created in a variety of art classes, displayed at various art contests, and shown here at school by their talented creators. Yearbook artist, Becky Bristow, and Director of Fine Arts, Marlene Mayer, received valuable scholarships to Chouinard Art School.

Below is the Sophomore Class Council. Their purpose is to work with the class officers to help out in all the class activities and to help solve the numerous problems of the class. Their job is to also pass down information about the class to the members of the class. Without the aid of the Class Council, running the class would be next to impossible. Members of the council are as follows: Standing: Nancy Weimer, Sandy Richardson, Cheryl McKee, Cathy Pratt, Penny Stevens, camera-shy Jeri Roll, Karl Edwards, Allen Koblin, Pat Hendley, Gale Zuber, and Vicki Lemon. Sitting: Bruce Beach, Lynne Lombardo, Jill Campbell, John Hays, Gary Hester, Ellie Davis, and April Speck.

The varsity football team for 1968 had the best season C.V. has had in many years. Winning five games and losing four, the team showed top schools such as Pasadena and Santa Monica that they meant business when it came to winning.

Valley's offense this season was able to overcome both early injuries and tough competition. With a lot of pride and courage, they proved to C.V. and to the Foothill League that they were capable of beating these obstacles.

defense stops foes; keeps gong!

Valley's defense showed a major improvement over past seasons with returning lettermen like Mike Miller, Mike Kincaid, Dave Rupp, Dave Haller, Noel Johnson, Tom Semington and Jerry Trowbridge. Also, Jeff Cena, a Bee letterman from last year, did a tremendous job at safety. He intercepted more than five passes during the season.

Displayed above is the "Gong" which is the annual trophy to the winner of the Glendale-Crescenta Valley football game. This year, for the second time in a row, C.V. won the award!

Jerry Trowbridge, no. 85, makes a fantastic, last-second dive thus cheating the Burbank player of an easy reception and a first down.

bee football has great season

This year the Junior Varsity cross-country team closed their season with a fine showing in the League Finals. Their record consisted of eight wins and one loss, one of the best at C.V. They defeated strong opposition from San Marino, Burbank and La Canada.

A Sophomore cross-country squad does not always mean a great deal to a school, but C.V. can and should be proud of these students who spend long hours practicing as do the Varsity and J.V. teams. Their goals are high, but they reach them just the same.

big foes fall to watermen

Crescenta Valley overcame an early season losing streak by winning five of their last seven games. Along with Woody Walker and Ron Ryun, who are shown at right, the team proved itself a power to be reckoned with in coming years. Under the coaching of Mr. Schirmer, the first water polo team at CV ended the season as a great success and fine contribution to Valley's sports department.

valley's starting five for 1968

Marc Palmer, the outstanding sophomore who played at center, was named to the All-League Second Team.

Although Coach Goorjian doesn't like losing seniors from his squad each year, he always comes up with another fine team each season. This year, Reed, Trowbridge and Storey will be leaving along with Sugg, Hopkins and Hawley. However, Palmer, Jones and a host of sophomores will return next year for another exciting round of high school basketball.

varsity track keeps pace

The Crescenta Valley Track Team got a slow start in 1968 but soon overcame the difficulties they were suffering and won a majority of their meets. Coach Gilliland was forced to use many Bee and Cee runners on the Varsity because of a lack of manpower. The Varsity had some exceptional performances for the season however. Nick Miccio, Dave Miller, and John Toth were outstanding in short and middle distance running. John McIntire, Steve MacIntosh and Howard Ray proved powerful in the mile and two mile races. Dave Potter, Gary Hanrihan and Larry Laing in the high jump, Jeff Maranville in the pole vault, along with Rich Ohmert in long jump and Chris Lerable in shot putt rounded out a well-balanced and effective track team. Mr. Gilliland and Mr. Walters can be congratulated for building the team both physically and mentally from early February to the Foothill League Track Finals near the end of April.

top times and record jumps

Jeff Maranville was a constant source of points for CV, placing in every meet during the year. His style and ability equaled his number one rating on the pole vault squad.

With an exceptional high jump squad and numerous long distance runners, CV gained points in these events at every meet. Also, the shot putt, long jump, and middle distance runners added their share of points during the season. Allowing for the small size and inexperience of the team, coaches Gilliland and Walters did an admirable job of forming an efficient team which won a majority of their meets against tough league competition.

Nick Miccio crosses the tape in first place at the finish of the 440 yard race against La Canada with Tim Jantos close behind in third. Miccio was also a team captain.

bee trackmen pass competition

(Right) Sayle Brown, one of Valley's top pitchers, warms up at Dunsmore Park before a game with San Marino. Other pitchers for the Varsity are Gary Knapp, Larry Hammond, and Bruce Beach. Crescenta Valley had a great season under Coaches Lange and Clark, and top performances from everyone on the team. Popularity for high school baseball is increasing steadily and will continue as CV's team becomes better and better.

This "C" will represent the Club's interest in the community and the city.*
